Camp Falcon Rock

Camp Falcon Rock is a NAB Ministry which focuses on investing in the next generation of people in Romania. Camp Falcon Rock is a Christian Camp under construction in Romania.

It will provide a place of discipleship and youth leadership training for the youth of Baptist churches in Romania. We are grateful for Paul and Tanya Gericke who are providing great leadership. For more info go to... www.rootsinromania.com.

Pikkerts - Wycliffe

Over the years Joost and Cheryl have been involved in Bible translation, multilingual education, ethnomusicology and administration. They have helped to write multilingual curriculum, encourage local music and raise funding for projects in more than 30 languages. They are presently involved in training translators and multilingual educators around the world. For more info go to...

Dewburys - Global Outreach Mission

Ben and Alicia's work in Belize is centered around developing and supporting a local Christian foster care network. They desire to see every child in a safe, loving and healing home. They model this by opening their home as a foster home, support families who are considering or have opened their home. They support local training on understanding trauma and various health-related struggles. For more info go to... <https://www.missiongo.org/donate/missionaries/ben-and-alicia-dewbury>

MacKenzies - Baptist General Conference

Gordon & Anna MacKenzie serve in Honduras working alongside their Honduran partners, Manos Extendidas Honduras (Extended Hands) serving the poor and marginalized children, youth and adults in some of the poorest areas in and around the capital city of Tegucigalpa. For more info go to... www.bgc.ca/gmp-mackenzie
